Description

If you are a driver, passenger, pedestrian, cyclist or, motorbike rider and have been innocently injured as a result of an accident with another vehicle, you have the right to claim compensation under the Motor Vehicle (Third Party Insurance) Act. As long as the motor vehicle accident was caused or majorly contributed to by the actions of another person, our expert team will help you claim financial compensation for your injuries. Our experienced, friendly and approachable car accident lawyers can firstly provide you with advice on whether or not you are eligible to make a claim, and then help you lodge the claim and obtain the maximum entitlement possible. At Trewin Norman, your first consultation is free and at no obligation. Legal fees are not payable up-front, and are only payable upon successful settlement of your claim.
